Attachment "A"

Wantage Township maintains staggered hours for our certified animal control officers during the work day, providing clients with "on duty" service from 8:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Experience shows that animal control calls are prevalent during late afternoon-early evening, when pet owners come home from work and situations unfold.

Wantage Township makes an estimate of the number of off-duty call outs (evenings and weekends) that can be expected from a community during a given calendar year, and charges a flat rate accordingly for that year's ACO and pound service. Newton's estimated off-duty calls for the year 2015 is 12 callouts. If, by the end of a calendar year, it becomes evident that the community being served expects a greater amount of off-duty service than that which was anticipated, Wantage Township would need to adjust the amount being charged as a service fee in the next year beyond the normal COLA adjustment.

As a cost saving measure, Wantage Township identifies "emergency" vs. "non-emergency" situations for animal control. When Wantage Township has an ACO on duty, Wantage will respond to any request for animal control in a client community. During off-duty hours (evenings, holidays and weekends), Wantage Township will request that the client's Police Department and/or other designated representative make a value judgment regarding whether or not the request for animal control service warrants an "emergency" situation.

Situations involving a dog barking complaint do not require a physical response from an ACO during off-hours. Neither does a complaint about a dog running at large, if the dog is not causing damage, danger or harm to any person or other animal. Both of these situations could be deemed to be "non-emergency", and dealt with as follow up activity during the next regular work day. Similarly, concerns that people may have regarding seeing a skunk or raccoon during an evening would not warrant an immediate response, as both of these animals are nocturnal by nature.

If a person calls to report a habitual "dog running loose" situation during off hours, it is likely that by the time a response is offered that same night, the dog would already be gone and the expense of the call out would be wasted. Instead, Wantage Township would offer to work with the person complaining, to identify likely days and hours that a special patrol would take place in the coming several weeks, so that if the dog is seen, an immediate response can be made when the person telephones with a request for service.

"Emergency" situations are clear cut in most situations: any situation involving an animal bite or scratch that affects a person or another animal; any time a person is confronted with a situation in which they believe that their personal safety is being threatened; any situation in which a member of the public has reason to suspect that an animal may have rabies; ... all of these situations warrant an immediate response, regardless of time of day or day of week.

There will, of course, be some situations in which it is difficult to decide whether or not the request involves an emergency or non-emergency situation. Wantage requests the police officer or other designated client representative to make a value judgment based on the situation. If the police officer or other designated client representative is not sure, then treat it as an emergency situation and Wantage will respond.
